

2022

With 2020 and 2021 in the distance, 2022 was a cakewalk. We've grown, moved, talked, listened and shared more than ever with each other and our clients. Read on to see what we got up to this year.

Our clients had lots of milestones this year! Below are some highlights, which we're proud we could be a part of.

1

ONCA COMPLIANCE

As of October 2021, the Ontario Not-for-Profit Corporations Act came into force. This year, we've helped 23 non-profit clients update their by-laws to ensure compliance.

LAND TRUSTS

This year, we assisted two prominent Toronto-based land trusts in acquiring over 600 single family homes across the city. Under community ownership, these homes will stay affordable forever.

3

LTB APPLICATIONS

We brought 28 applications to the Landlord and Tenant Board on behalf of our co-operative and non-profit housing clients.

Our phone number has remained the same.

Our email addresses have too!

Moving and shaking things up

On September 24, 2022, we moved to 30 St. Patrick Street, just a few blocks east - a swift five minute walk from our previous office.

IC Education

Over the past few years, we've gotten the hang of presenting virtually to our clients on topics such as human rights, landlord and tenant board matters and employment and governance. In fact, we delivered dozens of these presentations this year from behind our computers. We look forward to delivering presentations next year (hopefully some in person!).

Making changes

Our partnership has expanded! Congratulations to Safia Lakhani and Michael Hackl, who have stepped into their roles as partners.

Saying "goodbye" to a familiar face. After 17 years with the firm, Celia Chandler announced her departure as of December 31, 2022. Celia is looking forward to pursuing the unknown!

Stepping down as partner.

Brian Iler, founded the firm 27 years ago. Though he will cease to be a partner at the end of this year, he will continue as Counsel.

Love reading?

Check out some of our articles!

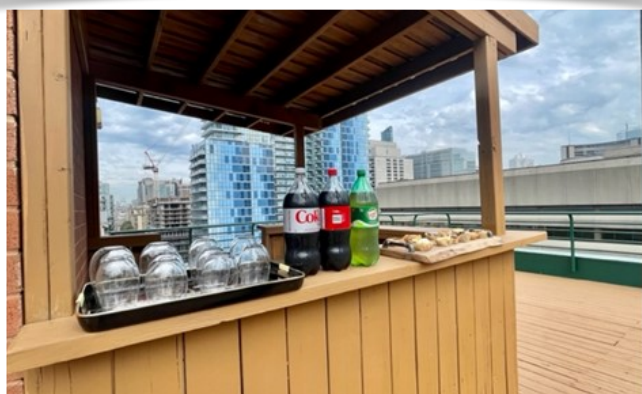

We wrote 24 articles for our website, some of which also appear on rabble.ca, and can be read under the blog tab here. The articles cover a range of topics from community bonds to abortion rights; from vaccine mandates to live music in Toronto.

An in person party - finally!

To mark our office move, we celebrated on our rooftop terrace (yes, we said terrace!) with soft drinks, appetizers, pizza and dessert. See photos to the right of some of our staff soaking up the last few October sun rays. We look forward to hosting clients here in 2023!

2022 Anniversaries

This year, Andrea Eggleton, our receptionist, and Julie Khamissa, our office manager, celebrated 20 years with the firm. Way to go!
